The Hare is delivered to all residents and businesses in Huntingfield, Heveningham and Ubbeston free of charge. It is also available on the village website (see below). If you live outside the area and would like a hard-copy of the Hare then we request a £12 annual donation towards printing and postage. The Hare is financed through advertising - so please support our advertisers whenever you can.

Autumnal tones

We can't believe how quickly this edition of The Hare has come around. The year has flown by and suddenly the "C" word has appeared in the various contributions for this penultimate 2026 edition. If you're a big fan of the festive season then you need to go straight to page 10 where we have managed to corral these references to save the sanity of those who lean more towards the "Bah, Humbug!" In the meantime, lets just enjoy the autumn season of "mists and mellow fruitfulness".

Given the current turmoil in the news, the annual events of our community can be somewhat comforting in their regularity. The apple pressing at The Hub proved fun and popular (p 6), we have the upcoming Harvest Suppers to enjoy (p 6 and 14) and the Remembrance Services at local churches - along with the afore-mentioned festive occasions. Put the dates in your diaries!

Support The Hare 2027!

Once again I have put together a calendar of local images, this time focusing on ('scuse the pun) Suffolk Skies. There will be a donation from each calendar towards the cost of producing The Hare – so we can maintain the free of charge distribution to the three villages.

The calendar is A4-size at a cost of £10. If you would like one please contact me at hcannon50@gmail.com.

Weather report: August – September 2026

For now the current trend in our weather continues in much the same vein. Warm and dry, although a couple of nights ago the temperature dropped to 5C. The mean temperature for September is, apparently, above normal and rainfall totals are also below average in this region. There may be some rain on Wednesday 30th which is the last chance for September - if it happens.

What are the rainfall totals like for the past two months? Summarily for these 2 months there was just 0.34" (8.64mm). So, very little less in comparison totalling 3.57" (80.9mm) compared with 3.91" (99.3mm) for the same period last year. Oddly, contrary to what you may think, the rainfall total this year to date is only 0.5"(12.7mm) less than last year.

| | 2025 | 2026 | Diff Inches |
|---|---|---|---|
| Aug | 0.90 | 2.11 | 1.21 |
| Sep | 3.01 | 1.46 | - 1.55 |
| Totals | 3.91 | 3.57 | 0.34 |

The main difference between the two years is that 2026 saw intense heat for a long period of time causing the rapid evaporation of soil moisture and high transpiration from vegetation, with no rain to speak of to replace it.

We need a long period of moderate rain to replenish water stocks and if we don't, the situation looks gloomy for crops and gardens alike next year. The drought is NOT over!

Looking ahead, the warm daytime temperatures look to continue for the next 10 days but, of course, night-time temperatures will fall. Apparently the current El Nino weather effect is probably causing some changes in weather patterns already with a singular lack of hurricanes forming in the Atlantic and causing trouble in the Caribbean so it's uncertain what will happen with our weather this winter. Rain dances are optional!

Sheep Talk…

At long last we finally got some desperately needed rain, much to the delight of the ladies who are at last surrounded by lush green grass. Despite the summer's lack of grass, the ewes and lambs have, surprisingly, held onto their body condition very well. The livestock always seem to do much better in a dry summer than a wet one.

The only group of sheep that appear to have struggled slightly are last year's shearlings. These are the young ewes who had their first ever lambs in April. They have to finish their own growing stage, feed their lambs and maintain weight which is a big ask with no green grass on the ground. These ladies have now been put together as a separate group and are now in grazing rotation on the best grass there is. This, alongside oral wormer drench and an anti parasite dip will greatly aid nutrition, weight gain, and overall well-being. This is very important given that the rams will be joining them in the next 5 weeks.

The main bulk of the boys will be Texel rams this year, resulting in what are known as Texel Mule lambs. These lambs tend to grow into strong ewes that are quite heavy in build and have attitude to match… I often think the dogs should be given boxing gloves when having to round some of them up! They mature into extremely good mothers, and normally produce very good looking, shapely lambs.

The ladies have a very exciting role to play at the start of August next year. We have been approached, and have agreed, to host the English National Sheepdog trials here at Heveningham. We will be opening the field gates, and welcoming the top 150 handlers and their elite dogs from across the whole country. There will also be brace dogs running at the event, where a handler works 2 dogs simultaneously on the trial field. It's a wonderful sight to see.

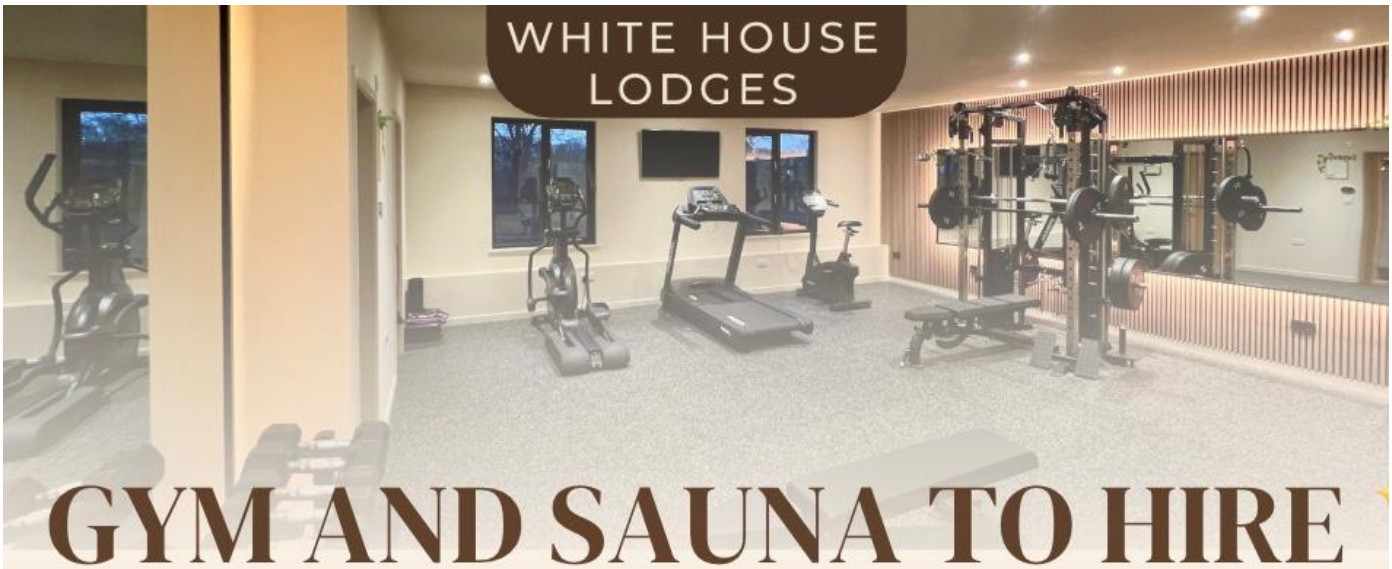

The top performing dogs each day earn a place in the Sunday Final and the top 15 handlers and dogs in the Final will earn a coveted spot to represent England at the International Supreme Championship. The ladies will definitely need to be looking and feeling their best to ensure everything runs as well as possible. Spectators are very much welcomed to these events and hopefully some of you can come along and join us over the four days of trials.

The new junior team member (Jyp) continues to grow in both size and character. Her training has begun, albeit lightly, as she still needs time to be just a puppy. So far, she has shown huge confidence, style and respect for the training sheep. Long may that continue! It's such an important time in her development, allowing her to slowly grow her confidence and ability to build her into the sheepdog she will become. Too much pressure at too young an age can ruin the best of pups.

Thank you from Hubfest

On behalf of Jeanette, Peter and myself we would like to thank everyone who made Hubfest '26 such an enjoyable and successful event.

Firstly, to the trustees of The Millennium Green who allow us free range of their brilliant asset for the weekend, and to Georgie Goldsmith for the use of the car parking field. Without these Hubfest would not happen.

Thanks are also due to Steve and Sara for the use of their marquee, and for selling early bird tickets for us. A big shout out also to Eddie and Julie for the loan of their marquee, tables and chairs. Welcome to the team! Mark (Rush), thanks so much for the loan of your bales. Unbelievably we only lost one! Also, a big thank you to everyone who lent us gazebos for the weekend. They proved invaluable for supplying some shade.

Hubfest would not have happened without the amazing group of volunteers who put so much effort in. You know who you are. It's so lovely that whenever something needed doing a group of helpers would just turn up, do the job, and then retire to The Arms. Many of the bands and stall holders comment that Hubfest is so well organised. Well, it's because of the willing volunteers who keep everything ticking along.

Finally thank you to all the residents of the three villages and beyond who paid good money to support us on the day, it makes all the effort worthwhile. Attendance was up by 50% this year for which we are really grateful and encouraged.

THANK YOU! David Blackmore

Advertising in The Hare

The Hare is always looking for some new advertisers in order to keep our costs down and to allow us to continue to distribute the newsletter in printed format, free of charge to residents of the three villages.

The cost for a full year (6 issues) is very reasonable:

Distribution includes 200 hard copies delivered to all residents of Heveningham, Huntingfield and Ubbeston, email distribution to a request list and online distribution to social media and village websites. If you are not a resident and would like to receive a hard copy by post we can send it to you for a charge of £12 per year. If you are interested, please email huntingfieldhare@gmail.com.

The new "Old Groynes"

Many new residents of the three villages may never have heard of the iconic performances staged by The Old Groynes Theatre Group. The name was taken from on an old sign on Southwold beach telling swimmers to 'Beware of the Old Groynes' – it seemed appropriate somehow! It was the inspiration of Stephen Harrison (then resident in Huntingfield) who composed some short stories for his daughter, Olivia, about the adventures of Arthur Frean (Stephen's middle names) back in 2015.

One of the stories was a magical mystery, Arthur Frean and the Huntingfield Sausagerous that later became the group's first pantomime performance in 2017 (pictured left). The second pantomime in 2018 was The Great Huntingfield Brain Robbery written by Ken Burnett and featuring a truly memorable Benny Hill style chase scene! This was followed by a short Children's Christmas play, Oops! Someone's Stolen Santa's Sleigh. And Rudolph! also by Ken.

Then came Mildred, The Power of a Dream, a celebration of the extraordinary achievement of the woman who created one of England's most iconic church ceilings – right here in little old Huntingfield, in St Mary's Church, where it was performed in situ. (above). For more details, photos and videos see https://oldgroynesplayers.com/

The Old Groynes Theatre Company was a great community social success, bringing so many villagers together.

The cast of The Brain Robbery

Creating and performing 'plays' is a very inclusive activity and very demanding on people's time, requiring commitment over several months for each performance. It requires not only people prepared to be on stage but many others to help with lighting, sound systems, stage design, costumes, marketing and selling tickets….and more. If this sounds right up your street see Jeannette's message..

PC 'Arris and Sgt. Wilkes starred in more than one production

A message from Jeannette

After the joy of the four earlier 'Old Groynes' productions we are keen to give the village play another go. We have some enthusiastic contributors and, at this stage, are inviting anyone who is interested to come along and help us make it happen. So, all you budding, or not so budding thespians, let us hear your voice. Even if you are not interested in a part, lots of help will be needed backstage with costumes and props etc. Ginny, Ken and I have play ideas in the making. With a wealth of experience within our villages this is bound to be a lot of a fun.

If you're interested, email Jeannette at jredway.bfl@gmail.com. or let Ken or Ginny know so we can plan how to take this forward. The emphasis is on fun. No experience necessary, just enthusiasm!

Halesworth Library half term

We have lots of fun activities planned for your little ones over October half term Come and join us on Saturdays 24th and 31st between 11:00-12:00 for Lego club and why not drop in from 2:30 onwards for Chess Club. On Sundays 25th October and 1st November, we host our Family Fun Time group 10:30-11:30, suitable for the whole family – we have a wide range of games and activities available.

On Tuesday 27th we will be running our regular Word play session for under 5s. Bring your little ones down for a mixture of songs, rhymes and soft play. The fun then continues with Lego club, 11:15-12:15. Free, no need to book in advance.

We have a special event planned on Wednesday 28th 1-3pm when we will be visited by Suffolk Archives who will be hosting a family friendly Halloween craft, suitable for ages 4-11.
Book via TicketSource to secure your place (https://www.ticketsource.com/suffolk-archives/t-oevelxr).

On Friday 30st October we will be hosting our very own spooky craft taking place between 11:00-12:00. Free event but booking required. Please contact the library to secure your place!

And finally! This month marks the 30th anniversary of Halesworth Library in its current home – thank you to all the staff, volunteers and customers who have contributed to the success of the library – here's to the next 30 years!

Arms Events

It's been a hectic time for us recently, with our eldest heading off to university – where does the time go? We're already getting busy with bookings and orders for the festive season… it seems to start earlier every year! The kitchen will be open right up until 23rd December this year but food orders will end on Friday 18th. Our Christmas light up is 27th November, with live music and lots of fun for all (see p 7).

Foodie events coming up include a Vietnamese Special on 6th October and our very popular Pie Night on 15th October. The latter is already fully booked but, as ever, do ask in case of cancellations. November sees the return of our special Steak Deal. Just £12 for an 8oz rump steak, tomato, peas, mushrooms, chips and peppercorn sauce. This runs Tuesday through to Friday throughout the month – booking is advised but not essential.

It's also that time of year when the quiz night returns – details on the right…

Hub News

The Hub is generally now pretty busy with regular classes and bookings. However, the events that take place for the community are important and always uppermost on our minds.

Thursday Club is back up and running after a short break over the summer. Every Thursday from 2-4pm. It is open for everyone. Just turn up. Consistent activities are currently pottery, games, crafts and art. It's a space for socialisation and sharing.

Forthcoming events

Unfortunately, Musical Bingo on 17th October has been postponed. Watch this space for further details.

Race Night is an immensely popular event and will return on the 14th November. Save the date and note it in your diary.

We can all look forward to our three village Christmas meal with three courses, cooked expertly by Sara from the Huntingfield Arms. This will take place on Sunday the 13th December at 7.00pm. Tickets from Julie Collett.

Your trusted trustees

Hundred Club

Thank you to those of you who have already renewed your subscription to the Huntingfield Millennium Green 100 Club for the year starting in October 2026. If you're one of the few yet to renew please let us have your subs or if you don't want to continue please let us know. There are several folks on the waiting list. It's £12 for the year: by bank transfer to Huntingfield M.G. CIO, sort code 20 28 20, account number 83842401 or cash if you'd prefer to Jim at Burin Barn and Julie at 1 Bridge Street. Jim is doing the prize draw on the last Friday of the month in the Arms.

All best wishes go to Sue Brewer for a steady recovery; in the meantime, Jim has stepped in to do the honours.

Edward's Column

The 9th September parish council meeting was attended by nine parishoners, with apologies from our county and district councillors, Annette Dunning and Julia Ewart.

It was reported that the Magna Carta walk noticeboard had been knocked down and a request to replace it was approved. David Blackmore reported on Hubfest 26 which was deemed to have been a great success and very well supported. £3.5-£4k (still tbc) was raised for the Hub although £3,026 came from the Parish Council to underwrite the costs. How this will be funded in future years has yet to be agreed, but it is intended to hold Hubfest 3 on 31st July 2027.

A resident asked how the CIL funds had been spent so far. I will put the information on the website along with the minutes from the September Meeting.

There were, understandably, strong view expressed about the ongoing unpleasant odours in the village. Anglian Water are investigating and the PC & District councillor will keep chasing them for a reliable resolution.

There was a request for an additional dog waste bin by the church, but given the two new dog waste bins for the Carnser (Barrels Hill End) and Millennium Green car park are still outstanding it was agreed a sign advising people to use the one by the bridge by Malt Cottages would be put up instead for the time being.

I have not covered everything here just the points I thought residents would be most interested in. All the reports and full minutes are available to read at: www.huntingfieldparishcouncil.gov.uk. The next meeting is on Wednesday 11th November at 7:00pm.

We still have vacancies for 3 councillors, and the role of the Parish Council continues to play an important part in the life of the village, from having responsibility for the village community assets, input into local planning decisions, setting the precept, and even deciding what to do with the Cil grants as a few examples. So if you are the slightest bit interested in making a contribution to village life or can add value to what we do please speak to myself, Emma, Sally or John we would love to have you on board.

Edward Watson, Acting chair Huntingfield

Petanque

The summer season is almost finished. All the league games have been played and, although we only lost one game, we have ended up mid table – in 3rd out of 5 teams which means we will remain in Division 4 next year. However, we will be playing four completely different teams!

I am delighted to report that we are in the final of the Plate competition, which is a first for the Hares. Good luck in the final on 11th October. Our opponents are still to be confirmed. There are also a few games left to be played in the triples league.

Once again, I was delighted to play in the inter-regional competition in Weston-Super-Mare. Playing 11 games over 2 days is exhausting! However, we have a great team that always support each other. All the games were long and hard fought. Unfortunately, the team I was playing for only won 1 game against Kent while other teams for Suffolk Coastal had mixed fortunes. At least the weather was kind to us this year, and the new Kit sponsored by the Sizewell Community Fund looked great.

November sees the club AGM. I have already entered the Hares & Hounds into the winter league. Let's hope the winter weather is as kind as the summer.

History Corner: Dorsal vertebrae from an Ichthyosaur

Two vertebrae have been discovered in fields in Ubbeston. The first was found a little while ago by Eddie Baker, a Laxfield farmer. He consulted experts at the Natural History Museum, who verified the first of the two specimens:

'The bedrock in Laxfield is from 5 million to 12 thousand years old and is much too young for ichthyosaurs. They went extinct around 95 million years ago. It is probably from the glacial till [a mixture of clay, sand, gravel and boulders deposited directly by glaciers] in the area and has been brought from much further north to Suffolk during the last Ice Age.'

A second vertebral fragment was found more recently near the site of the first by metal detectorist, David Steadman.

You never know what is below your feet!

Come and see the finds in the Museum which is open until the end of October. The coffee morning advertised for 17th October is postponed until next spring. Ceilidh tickets for 24th October are on sale now.

Nature Notes

As we move further into autumn various signs of this beautiful season are becoming obvious. Leaves on some deciduous trees are starting to turn into their rusty autumnal colours, fruit and nuts are in profusion. Squirrels, amongst other animals are busy collecting and storing food for the forthcoming winter.

Our summer visiting migrant birds such as Swallows, House Martins and, my favourite, Swifts are noticeable by their absence locally as they are heading to southern warmer climes. Other, less obvious bird migration is also happening in surprising numbers locally through hedges and even gardens.

I have been studying this phenomenon by ringing birds in a pitch of local scrub just outside Huntingfield. A very helpful local farmer has kindly allowed me to place some nets amongst the Bramble and Elder. This scientific study is organised and licensed under strict rules by the British Trust for Ornithology, a charity based at Thetford. I have been ringing birds for over thirty years in varied habitats and locations but, I must admit I was amazed to discover how many different warblers are migrating through our local bushes.

In the last two autumns I have ringed hundreds of different birds in including Blackcaps, Garden Warbler, Common and Lesser Whitethroat, Chiffchaffs and Willow Warblers. When compared with observing these birds with binoculars the numbers are amazing: I might observe just a few birds flitting through the bushes but can ring up to fifty warblers in a morning! Recently I ringed a Redstart in Huntingfield - as far as I am aware this is the first instance of this species recorded in our Parish.

Ringing birds provides several pieces of information about them including longevity, breeding success, health and where and when migrants are travelling to and from. I have had birds such as Sedge Warbler "recovered" (found by another ringer) in the Loire valley in France the day after I had ringed it!

Other easily overlooked migrants are still arriving here in the form of moths. Matthew, our local moth expert, recently found on the same morning in Heveningham and Huntingfield two large and rather spectacular moths. These were the Blue Underwing and the Red Underwing. They are both around three inches in size with the Blue Underwing being slightly larger. They are both quite rare breeding species in Suffolk. Their numbers are boosted at this time of year by migrants from Europe. Colonisation has also occurred with breeding increasingly recorded due to climate change.

Good numbers of a day flying migrant moth have been noted in many local gardens this year. This is the amazing, hovering Hummingbird Hawkmoth so do keep an eye out for this fascinating species.

St Margaret's Church, Heveningham with Ubbeston

Who doesn't love a wedding?

I certainly do, and we had the pleasure of hosting the wedding of Lottie and Angus at St Margaret's in September. I find everything about a wedding exciting, from the initial consultations and the build-up, to making sure everything is in place on the day. The bride and groom's families did a wonderful job preparing the church, and we had the most stunning flower arrangements.

The day was perfect and totally unique to the couple. Three rather large tractors turned up carrying the groom and groomsmen, while the lovely bride arrived in a very old Land Rover. I would also like to thank Rev Canon Brynn Bayman for all his input, making it such a relaxed and magical day. Congratulations to the newlyweds, Mr and Mrs Mann!

Moving on from the magic of a wedding, we are now looking forward to our Harvest Service and Supper on 11th October, and we need your help. The church is now very clean but looking particularly bare, and it would be lovely to fill it with autumn colours. If you are able to create a display for us we have plenty of spare vases and plenty of space! Pick an area to decorate or vases will be left in the porch for those who would simply like to bring along a display.

We would also love contributions to our Harvest Supper, with any savoury or sweet dishes you would like to add to our table. I find our Harvest Service a particularly important one in the year. It gives farmers a chance to come together as well as giving us the opportunity to thank everyone for all their hard work over the past year. Our service starts at 4pm and will be led by Rev Edmund Smith. We can't wait!

Events in October

9th October @ 7pm – Quiz Night
An informal and fun quiz for teams of up to four people. £2.50 per person.

29th October @ 7pm – Old Bats Evening
A chance for adults to enjoy a glass of wine and some refreshments, while hopefully listening to the bats and seeing if we can identify the different species. Over 16s only.

I have also started to book tables for our Christmas Craft Fair on 5th December. Tables are £5. For any information on the above events, or to book a place, please contact Jeanette on stmargaretchurch11@gmail.com or 01986 798280. Thank you, as always, for your continued support.

Your Parish Council

Ubbeston Parish Council

The most recent meeting of the Parish Council took place on Monday 14th September 2026 at the Hub in Huntingfield. Draft minutes from the meeting will be available on the Parish Council website.

The parish council currently has one vacancy for a councillor, and we would be delighted to hear from anyone who feels they would enjoy contributing to the life of our community and local community matters. If you're interested, please send an expression of interest to the Clerk, who is also very happy to provide further information or answer any questions about the role.

The Heveningham Country Fair Trust has generously pledged funding to Heveningham and Ubbeston for cases of individual needs. Residents who feel they may benefit from this support are invited to submit a request for funds. Applications can be made directly to either the Parish Clerk, or Sam Fairs, Chair of Heveningham Parish Council, for consideration. We want to reassure everyone that all requests will be treated with complete confidentiality. No personal details or circumstances will be shared beyond what is strictly necessary for the charity to assess the application.

The next meeting of the Parish Council is due to take place on Monday 9th November 2026 in The Hub at Huntingfield, commencing at 7pm. All residents are warmly invited to attend.

Heveningham Parish Council

The most recent meeting of Heveningham Parish Council took place on Wednesday 23rd September 2026 and was held at the church in Heveningham. Draft minutes from the meeting will be available on the Parish Council website.

The Parish Council currently has one vacancy for a Parish Councillor and is inviting expressions of interest from anyone who would like to become involved in supporting and contributing to our local community. Being a Parish Councillor is a great opportunity to have a say in local matters. If you are interested in finding out more about the role, or would like to express an interest, please contact the Parish Clerk for further information.

Replacement trees for the land adjacent to The Street were discussed at the recent parish council meeting. It was put forward that an Ornamental Cherry Tree and a small Acer or decorative Maple be planted.

The Heveningham Country Fair Trust has generously pledged funding to Heveningham and Ubbeston for cases of individual needs. Residents who feel they may benefit from this support are invited to submit a request for funds. Applications can be made directly to either the Parish Clerk, or Sam Fairs, Chair of Heveningham Parish Council, for consideration. We want to reassure everyone that all requests will be treated with complete confidentiality. No personal details or circumstances will be shared beyond what is strictly necessary for the charity to assess the application.

The next meeting of the Parish Council is due to take place on Wednesday 18th November 2026, to be held in The Hub at Huntingfield, commencing at 7pm. All residents are warmly invited to attend.
